

Airborne Getaway

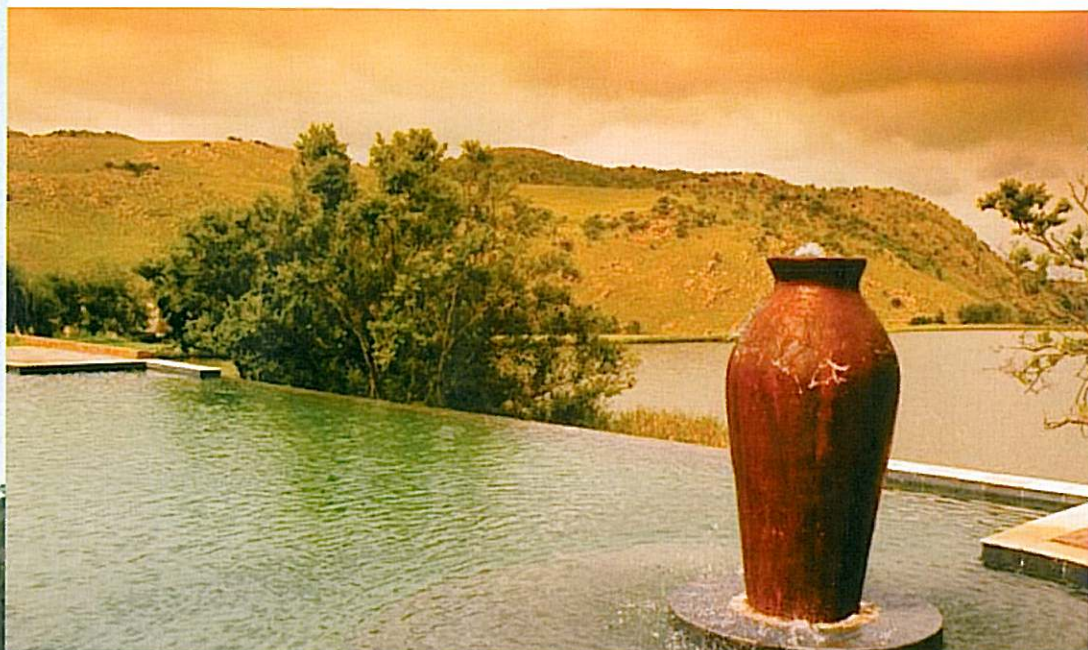

So you want to impress your babe and reap your just rewards? Dude, do we have a perfect plan for you!

BEFORE YOU DISMISS THE IDEA as totally gay, we want to state upfront that we are well aware Bridget Jones's Diary is for girls! Just because we know what a "mini-break" is, doesn't mean we have watched the movie. Ever! The truth is, every babe on the planet will, at some stage, pull a Bridget Jones. That's when they get a little restless and mutter stuff about "quality time", "romance" and "just the two of us"! When you hear any of those words, dude, she's talking about a mini-break! For the uninitiated, this is a romantic (to her), dirty (to us) weekend away, where a little effort goes a long, long way! Because we really don't want you to break a sweat over this, FHM

have teamed up with our mates at Air-Ventures and Kloofzicht Lodge to bring you a mini-break that's a full-on success! After all, what could be better than going on an exciting holiday with a happy - and grateful - babe?

Granted, this break starts really early in the morning, but when your babe sees Air-Ventures' hot-air balloon waiting, it'll be worth it. Enjoy a breathtaking sunrise while you float through the Zwartkops mountain gorge, sipping champagne and being smothered in kisses - trust us! No, nookie won't be an option, but never mind - ballooning's such an awesome experience you'll be laying the groundwork while trying to spot your house from on high. The rest can wait for the lodge.

Once the balloon lands and your babe is on cloud nine, sweep her up to five-star Kloofzicht Lodge for a top-notch breakfast. Kloofzicht is amazing. The Zwartkops Mountains, dams, fly-fishing and game viewing, leisurely strolls, awesome food at the restaurant and even better drinks at the bar. But dude, it's the amazing room that will be your grand finale! We're talking ultimate luxury, with a king-size bed, round baths looking out over the water, outside showers and even a flat-screen TV. Believe us when we tell you that you will not be needing the flat-screen TV!
